

The Five Faces of Parenting

Children are our future - You are their hope.
Go for GREAT Parenting.

About the Authors

MARGARET CARTER EdD., MEdSt., BEdSt., DipEd

Margie works in private practice as a behaviour change specialist. She works as a consultant, mentor, teacher, social coach, program designer, facilitator, presenter and mediator. Margie's main areas of operation include: parenting; early years; child social behaviour; conflict resolution; emotion fitness; childhood grief and loss; adult self-care. Her clients range in age from birth to adulthood.

Margie is the author of several books and curriculum texts. Margie is the co-author of The Five Faces of Parenting program, a dynamic and unique program designed to make a positive difference in the lives of families.

JOHN McARDLE MEd (Sp), GradDip RT., C.RT., RET

John is a senior consultant in professional development. He develops custom made professional development for individuals, groups, organizations with a particular focus on behaviour change. John is a qualified teacher and has worked in education as a teacher, special education consultant, school principal, guidance counsellor, supervisor of schools and professional development consultant.

John is a highly respected author and presenter and consultant. He is the author of the PEOMO series of maths and spelling; the Mindfields series of administration, behaviour and value-added consultancy. John specializes in programs for parents. He is the co-author of the Five Faces of Parenting program.

