

The Five Faces of Parenting

What's in this for My School or Community?

- Common language - The Five Faces program enables all participants to come together using the concepts and language of the Five Faces.
- Follow up material – Further reading available to participants via secure site on website. The readings are additional to and compliment the parenting program.
- Repeat program – Program can be 'done' many times as children grow and families expand.
- Community building – Program is thoroughly interactive and brilliant for parents getting to know one another.
- Parent empowerment – Parents becoming great parents.
- Smaller group / large group structures – Structure varies depending on demand / need.
- Own facilitators can be parents.
- Five Faces book series - Small booklets in the Five Faces of parenting format addressing further topics of parenting.
- Booklets for teachers and specialists.
- Tool for communities and schools to 'get into' parent education.
- Parents helping parents to become great parents.